1. On 9 October 1951, a public security meeting was held in Hangchow, under the direction of T'AN Chen-lin (譚震林), HO Ch'i-lung (何啓龍), CHANG Ai-p'ing (張愛萍), and supervisors sent from the central government and the East China Military Area. Present at the meeting were high-ranking Chekiang military and civil officials.
2. On 22 December HSU Chien-kuo (許建國),<sup>1</sup> head of the public security administration of the East China Military and Administrative Committee, called a conference in Foochow. It was attended by CHANG Ting-ch'eng, chairman of the Fukien government, and LIANG Kuo-pin, director of the Fukien Public Security Department. Plans were made at the conference to take a complete census of all residents along the Fukien coast within the next two months; to organize Fukien fishermen into counterespionage teams; and to recruit 328 college and high school students to aid in this security work.
3. On 26 December K'ANG Sheng, chairman of the Shantung provincial government, called a public security meeting in Tsinan which was attended by KUO Tzu-hua, vice chairman of the Shantung government; CHENG Wen-ch'ing (鄭文卿), head of the Shantung Public Security Department; Soviet adviser Pi-ni-ssu-chi (彼尼斯基); YANG Ch'i-feng (楊奇峰), secretary of the Shantung Communist Party; WANG Ming (王明), chief of the
